Library Services for Faculty

Overview

Bryn Mawr faculty enjoy the services of three libraries: Canaday, Carpenter and Collier, as well as the greater Tri-College Library Consortium that includes the libraries at Haverford and Swarthmore Colleges. The library staff are available year-round and eager to help support faculty scholarship and instruction.

Support Services

Research and Instruction Support

- Experienced subject specialist reference librarians are available to conduct library instruction sessions for your class, meet with students individually and design course and subject-specific Research Guides to support student work
- Subject specialist librarians buy books, DVDs and electronic resources to support the curriculum and faculty research
- Special collections librarians and archivists are available to help integrate Bryn Mawr's unique art, artifact and archival collections into your coursework

Borrowing and Inter-Library Loan

- Books, DVDs, laptops, cameras and other media equipment are available for borrowing. See a full equipment list at <http://www.brynmawr.edu/library/BorrowingPolicies.html>

Course Reserves

- Print and video reserves for current semester courses are maintained at all three libraries
- Electronic reserves are distributed via Moodle
- See the Reserves Guidelines for Faculty at <http://www.brynmawr.edu/library/reserves.html>

Digital Repository

- Scholarship, Research, and Creative Work at Bryn Mawr College (<http://repository.brynmawr.edu>) is our open-access repository for research and scholarship produced by Bryn Mawr faculty and staff
- A Scholarly Communication Librarian is available to advise on copyright, publishing and Open Access issues
